

TRICYCLE™

Free-up creativity and inspiration from reliance on physical products using Tryk® sampling.

Tryk® is our brand name for high quality carpet simulations from Tricycle™. Tryk® delivers realistic texture and color; designed to reduce physical carpet sample costs, create less waste, and shorten the product development and sales processes.

Manufacturers use Tryk® to streamline the review/revision cycle in product development, while increasing speed to market and meeting customer demands faster.

Sales Teams use Tryk® samples to quickly narrow selections and reach a final decision.

Designers use Tryk® to spend more time designing and less time waiting for physical samples.

Realistic Color and Texture: presentation quality

Flexible Formats: to showcase your vision

Fast: instant online/24 hour print delivery

Trusted Technology: trusted worldwide by manufacturers and designers since 2002
